into his representation. His goal as an attorney is to carefully guide his clients through the often-frustrating legal process. He has learned that honesty and respect are vital to your representation, but also recognizes that some cases, possibly yours, may need an aggressive approach.

In addition to his responsibilities as a partner of Marcellino & Tyson, PLLC, Matt is a member of Myers Park Presbyterian Church, counsel member for the Salvation Army Boys and Girls Club, and in his free time, enjoys serving up his award-winning barbeque with his family and squeezing in a round of golf.
